Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Judy Schnaible boasts a long and proud history of dedicated service to the state of South Dakota and the Department of Social Services, serving Rapid City and the Northern Hills area for more than 34 years as a caseworker, supervisor, and regional manager; and,

Whereas, Judy has performed admirably and risen above expectations to provide a helping hand to South Dakotans in need; and,

Whereas, Judy has led numerous committees and work groups to enhance programs and services for the citizens of South Dakota, in addition to focusing on staff needs to deliver these programs and services; and,

Whereas, Judy is a proven leader in her field, and her knowledge and expertise will set an example for others to follow in the years to come; and,

Whereas, Judy will retire on May 23, 2009, after more than 34 years of service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 23, 2009, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
